RICKY CARIOTI/THE WASHINGTON POST

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Da'Shawn Hand

Woodbridge / DL / Sr. Tabbed the nation's top recruit by Rivals.com, Hand used his explosive speed off the edge and aggressive style of play to record 16 sacks and rack up double-digit tackles in four contests. Often facing double and triple teams, he helped lead the Vikings to the Virginia 6A South playoffs, earning Conference 4 defensive player of the year honors along the way. After earning more than 30 scholarship offers from Football Bowl Subdivision programs, Hand committed to Alabama.

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Caleb Henderson

Lake Braddock / QB / Sr. Blessed with a strong arm and powerful legs, the senior quarterback used his dual-threat ability to turn the Bruins into one of the area's most prolific offenses. The North Carolina commit threw for 2,159 yards and 20 touchdowns and rushed for 964 yards and 18 more touchdowns as Lake Braddock averaged 45.8 points. With Henderson under center, the Bruins posted a 12-1 record that included an undefeated regular season and a march to the Virginia 6A North region semifinals.
