FIRST TEAM

GK Hayden Kickbush
Yorktown / Sr.
Area's best shot stopper used big hands and quicksilver reactions to record four shutouts. Will play at Virginia Tech.

D Will Gatchel
Madison / Sr.
Savvy center back anchored a defense that posted nine shutouts and conceded 14 goals, the best defensive stat line in Northern Virginia.

D Sam Golan
Langley / Sr.
Parlayed his unique versatility into shifts as both an attacking central midfielder and center back. Will play at William & Mary.

D Justin Smith
Oakton / Sr.
Deceptively strong shutdown defender led the Cougars to seven shutouts and excelled at busting forward into the attack.

MF Abdullah Al'Rubaiy
Washington-Lee / So.
Shifty winger showcased sublime skill that gave opponents fits during the Generals' run to the Conference 6 championship.

MF Billy Blake
Yorktown / So.
Playmaker dubbed "The Gifted One" by teammates orchestrated Patriots' attack with feathery touch and pinpoint distribution.

MF Daniel Crespo
Tuscarora / Sr.
Conference 14 Player of the Year displayed superior athleticism while guiding Huskies into the 5A state tournament.

MF Chris McGhan
Lee / Sr.
Tenacious attacking engine pulled the strings in the middle of the park for a squad that qualified for region playoffs for the first time in 15 years.

F Eric Calvillo
Osbourn / Sr.
Former U.S. youth national team call-up used relentless motor to collect 17 goals and drive Eagles to Conference 8 regular season title.

F Obdulio Funez
